ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER No. AVT-2015-027
 22 September 2015

Subject: REVISED DRIVER'S LICENSE EXAMINATIONS

1. In order to ensure that the driver's license holders possessed the proper qualifications in the operation of motor vehicles, the Land Transportation Office (LTO) is hereby directed to implement the attached revisions on the Basic Driving Theory Tests specific to the type of license applied for:

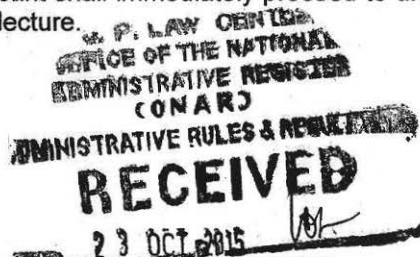

- a. Non-Professional Driver's License (NPD);
- b. Professional Driver's License (PDL)
  - Tricycles/Restriction Code 1;
  - Light Vehicles/Restriction Codes 2, 4 and 6; and
  - Heavy Vehicles/Restriction Codes 3, 5, 7 and 8;
- c. Conductor's License.

2. To this end, a reviewer containing all possible questions in the examinations for issuance of an NPD, PDL and Conductor's License shall be given to the applicant, for free, together with his/her Student Permit Card. Sufficient copies of the said reviewer shall likewise be made available for free at all LTO offices nationwide.

3. Further, for easy access by any applicant, the said reviewer shall be uploaded in the websites of both the Department of Transportation and Communication and the LTO.

4. The LTO is also directed to play a Video Presentation of relevant laws, rules and regulations in the issuance of driver's licenses and the operation of motor vehicles in all of its offices in a continuous loop in order to ensure that the same may be viewed by the public at any time.

5. As a result of the foregoing, the LTO shall cease and desist from conducting lectures prior to the driver's license examinations such that upon payment of the required fees, an applicant shall immediately proceed to undergo written examinations without any prior lecture.
